Dear Ms. Dalla Costa,

On behalf of the students and faculty of the New School for Social Research I would like to thank you for coming to speak on the subject, "The struggles of women in Italy within the context of the current crisis" last Thursday evening, 30 October, 1975. The talk you gave and the discussion which followed were extremely valuable, and will inspire discussion and action here in the future, I'm sure.

Once again, our thanks for your presentation. We send our best wishes for your continued work.

Sincerely yours,
