

My dear Rosa,

PA, contella 3, 131

I am really looking forward to see you & we can have a really good fight.
About what? We are sure to find something! L'offensiva looks lovely & so does the new edition of Poste Femminile. Waspere is not interested & it is with another publisher in Paris. But Sylvine is back & we are very glad. The French translation is finished & I'll probably bring it.
I won't have the damn Statement of the IFC in four languages ready because Gigi gave it to Ferruccio by mistake. But I have it in German
- Bronda's wife did it. Enclosed is what we are doing. I was really pleased to see that article translated.
It made me happy. And I'm sure Betsy Warrior will also be pleased.
Pier will send her a copy from Padova we are going to try to place the book in Italian at the Italian bookshops in London. Good idea?

I want to know how your mother is & to have a proper gossip. And some quiet. And a lot of quiet.

Much love tell & see you soon.

S.

P.S. Rosanna is anxious for a letter from you about your trip to Naples. She is a very fine woman & belongs more to us than to P.O.

PPS Gigi sends a "fraternal" welcome to you & F.

PPPS: Peppe says you will hear from him very soon. But I don't believe it.
