Dear Mainwold:

Your letter shocked me. I cannot believe that you chose not to inform me that there was a chance of a problem in Padua. By your acting, you have caused almost unreparable damage at Richmond College. What you did was highly irresponsible, totally ~~selfish~~ selfish, and unworthy of a comrade. I am extremely angry.

Should you ever desire to teach in New York, particularly at the City University of New York, you may be assured that my opposition will always be present.

Sincerely yours,

Alan Wolfe
