My dear Rosa,

In great haste. Enclosed CONSCIOUSNESS RAISING AND CAMPAIGNING. I wonder if you know it was done by a woman from the Communist Party who does not agree with wages for housework. But I agree the first part is very good.

Secondly, about the interview. I haven't one in the house, and Beese will probably send hers to you special delivery tomorrow. If she can't find it, she'll tell me tonight, and I'll photostat the original and send that.

Thirdly, about the campaign against discrimination I still have not found. We pay very little attention to that here, since they are all very reformist and rightwing women.

About the German book which I have just received, it is a great victory, though it is full of serious errors. It was done very carelessly. What is the financial arrangement. Who is Trikont? Are they commercial publishers? If they are, then we must be paid for our stuff. ~~She~~ Gisele Erler didn't even consult me by the way about the publication of the RACE TODAY article. What kind of woman is she?

I would be glad if you could get me on the phone so we can have a chat about this.

I'm also run off my feet, as you apparently are too. Are you planning to go to Germany? They have written me nothing definite. I have weekends free between the 2 3rd June and the 24 June, and then I have July which is still not booked up. It would be good to meet and talk, and there is a great advantage to going now that the book is out. I think also it would do a world of good to some of the women in the collective to see something of the rest of the world. England is so backward.

But it looks like the nurses' struggle has given us our chance. We shall see.

Much love. Hoping you can call. Hoping we can meet soon. I'll do everything for you to get those documents, but the BBC is breathing down my neck, as usual.

G.

We are in trouble with translating your stuff. There is only Joan who is very busy + who can't translate politically. I have to check all her work, which is a bit of a disaster since I know it. The terms + am not fluent. (over)

Do you have people who speak English understand Italian & who can help to translate for us?

Secondly I'm trying to find a foreign publishing house to whom you can send your book on birth control. Do you have any ideas?

Love
