Dear Mariadrosa,

Hi! I'm from the Oberlin Wages for Housework Collective and I've spent the last month working with the London Collective. I'm travelling through the Continent for the next month, and I'd like to come to visit you when I see Italy. (You know Dalia Coste's house is due to be put in with the Piazza San Marco on the American Express tour of Italy of things to see). Could I also stay with you for a night? I should be arriving in Padova around Dec. 26. Could you also give me other addresses in Italy, too?

Working with the POW Collective was really interesting and a real eye-opener, in some ways it's so different from the U.S., yet it becomes so obvious that WFH speaks to every woman, too. Hope to be talking to you soon.
