Dear Sisters,

This newsletter is intended to give you details of the upcoming Montreal Conference. We're looking forward to seeing you here the weekend of February 21-23.

We've planned a public meeting for the Friday night (21st) as part of our work here, and hope that many of you will be able to arrive in time for it. We will hold our own discussions on Saturday and Sunday. All meetings will take place at McGill University in downtown Montreal.

Friday, 8 p.m.	-	Room 219, Leacock Building, McGill Campus.
Saturday 10 a.m.	-	Room 123-124, McGill Students' Union, 3480 McTavish St., McGill Campus.
Sunday, 10 a.m.

For accommodation, if you arrive on Friday before 7 p.m., please contact: Edie Parkas,
3575 Clark Street.
843-3370

If you arrive on Friday after 7 p.m., come directly to Room 219, Leacock Building, McGill Campus. We will have a table set up outside the room.

If you arrive on Saturday, come directly to Room 123-24, McGill Students' Union, 3480 McTavish Street, McGill Campus.

In order to help us figure out numbers of sleeping places, please mail us the bottom section of this letter by return mail.

Attached is a tentative agenda. We will be sending out a new draft of the statement shortly. Please come with comments and suggestions.

We hope groups and individuals will come with enough copies of their prepared reports to distribute to 50 people. These reports should not just be accounts of daily activity but should be oriented to the major political questions and problems.

We will have 4 new pamphlets available at the conference as well as other literature and buttons.

We will be providing lunch on Saturday and Sunday, but we expect people to make their own arrangements for dinner on both nights.

In Sisterhood,

The Montreal Power of Women Collective.
