

per Prof. S. Samule Acquaviva / C. andiamo?

F. SAMBINO

THE AMSTERDAM FESTIVAL OF SOCIAL SCIENCES

APRIL 7 - APRIL 18, 1975

FB, antella 2, 57

M.C. Escher: Lucht en Water 1, "Escher Stichting - Haags Gemeente Museum"

The Joint Festival Committee

Director: Alvin W. Gouldner

Jan Baars Dirk Kuiper

Felix Geyer Derek Phillips

Hans Hofmeijer

Jan Veldhuijzen

In honor of Amsterdam's 700th birthday the undersigned social scientists of Amsterdam, with the collaboration and support of:

the Free University, and SISWO (Netherlands Universities' Joint Social Research Centre)

cordially invite you to the Amsterdam Festival of Social Sciences, to be held at the Free University, 1105, De Boelelaan, Amsterdam, from April 7 through April 18, 1975.

During this period there will be an intensive and concentrated series of lectures by leading social scientists from throughout the world, focussing on developments in certain basic new paradigms in the Social Sciences:

Communications Theory, Linguistics, Semiotics, Neo-Marxism, Critical Theory, Ethnomethodology, Phenomenological Sociology.

Most lectures will be in English or otherwise translated.

For a detailed program of the Festival write to:

"Social Science Festival"

P.O. Box 5769
Amsterdam
the Netherlands

The speakers at the Festival will be :

- Eqbal Ahmad (Amsterdam), Toward a Sociology of Terrorism
- Shlomo Avineri (Jerusalem), Nationalism and Socialism
- Basil Bernstein (London), Codes and Codings in Education
- Alan Blum (Toronto), The Social Construction of the Past
- William Chambliss (Oslo), Crime in Capitalist and Socialist Societies
- Jack Douglas (London), Newsmedia in Western Democracies
- Mary Douglas (London), Thrift vs. Spendthrift : a Rereading of Max Weber
- Umberto Eco (Bologna), The Emerging Semiotics
- Erving Goffman (Philadelphia), Gender Commercials
- Alvin Gouldner (Amsterdam), Communications Theory: The Chicago and Frankfurt Schools
- Dell Hymes (Philadelphia), Toward Linguistic Competence
- Joachim Israel (Lund), Epistemological Problems
- Julia Kristeva (Paris), Semiotics and the Speaking Subject
- William Labov (Philadelphia), Linguistic Change and Conflict Theory
- Niklas Luhmann (Bielefeld), Systems Theory, Communications Theory and Social Evolution
- David McLellan (Canterbury), Karl Marx : Vicissitudes of a Reputation
- Arthur Mitzman (Amsterdam), Flaubert and Psychohistory
- Claus Offe (München), Dynamics of Social Reform in the Kapitalstate
- Derek Phillips (Amsterdam), Dilemmas of Equality
- Maurice Roche (Sheffield), Promising and Moral Style
- David Silverman (London), Castenada : Reading and the Production of Sense
- Paul Walton (Glasgow), Language and Structure : Illustrations from Television - research

Registration for the entire series is Dfl. 25,- (Dfl. 10,- for students) or the current equivalent in foreign currency. Checks should be made payable to the Free University and sent to:

"Social Science Festival"
P.O. Box 5769
Amsterdam, the Netherlands

(When sending personal checks in foreign currency please add an extra Dfl. 5,- to defray arbitrage charges)