How

Dear Deal, [Phil?]

this is just a note :since not all the publishers in Italy are so accurate in reporting the corrections that the authors make on the proofs, we had to make two "errata corripge" on two books that we made and that I gave to you. They are "Brutto ~~ma~~ ciao" and "Aborto di stato-strage degli innocenti". I am now ~~mandingx~~ sending them to you so that if anyone has to report for whatever reason some parts of the books, their corrections also will be immediately available.

I thanks you again for your invitation to me at your University where I met many women I really enjoyed to speak to and I hope in the US or in Italy we will have many other occasions of political exchange also whith other women working with me.

Cari saluti anche a Donna
