Dear Mariarosa Dalla Costa,

Thank you for your letter which unfortunately took a long time in reaching me. Under separate cover, I am sending you some recent issues of SIGNS which, I think, will give you a good idea of the nature of our publication. Although we already have an Italian correspondent for SIGNS, we are very eager to solicit articles directly from Italian scholars and hope that you will want to submit to us some of your work for possible publication. I should point out that we do have specialists who read Italian in addition to translators,<sup>so</sup> please be assured that the language of your texts does not pose a problem.

I look forward to hearing from you again.

Sincerely yours,

this letter is to confirm you that the Faculty where I am teaching as professor of "Politica comparata" has accepted to ~~subscribe~~ send you a subscription for "SIGNS". The official communication will arrive, I hope, very soon. And we think to renew it every year.

Having read the issues that you sent to me I agreed if you want to be indicated as Italian correspondent with Dacia Maraini that I know very well. I will send you as soon as possible the English translation of "Reproduction and emigration" an article that I published in Italy first in the book "L'operaio multinazionale in Europa" (Feltrinelli ed.) and in then in the book "Brutto ciao" (Edizioni delle donne).

Since the translation has already been seen by me and others colleagues (the translator is Silvia Federici living in New York) I will not permit any change. Tell me please in a short time when you will have receive it if you decide to publish this article and apologize my bad knowledge of american language that make me very rough in my correspondence.

Sincerely yours
Mariarosa Dalla Costa
